

Pirates' code

What did the captain have to make sure when recruiting men before they went on a voyage?

- The captain had to make sure that men wore pirate's clothes
- The captain had to make sure that men followed a strict set of rules.
- The captain had to make sure that men could swim.

What was the set of rules called?

- It was called "The Golden Rules"
- It was called the Pirate's team
- It was called "The Pirate's code".

What happened to the pirates that didn't follow the rules?

- They were punished.
- They had their beards cut off.
- They had no rum and pudding at dinner time.

The lights and candles had to be put out ...

- at six o'clock □ at eight o'clock
- at seven o'clock
- It was called "The Pirate's code".

What happened when two or more men quarrelled?

- One had to kill the other in the fight on the same ship.
- They had to end the fight on shore.
- The captain asked them to make peace after some time fighting.

Could pirates gamble (bet money) when they played on board?

- Yes, they could
- No, it was forbidden

Did every pirate have the right to vote in "affairs of the moment"?

- Yes, he did
- No, he didn't

